The Descendants of

Henry and Susannah Paul

The following persons were soldiers in the civil war:

Daniel Paul was a member of the 36th Ind. vol. He died in the hospital at Chattanooga, Tenn., from gun shot wounds.

Samuel Miller was a member of the 36th Ind. vol. He was killed on the battlefield near Murphysboro, Tenn.

David Paul was a member of a Pennsylvania regiment. He went through the entire war.

Isaac Paul, Levi Craig and George P. Shultz were members of the 23rd Indiana Battery.

John P. Shultz was a member of the 130th Ind. vol.

John F. Shultz was a member of the 154th Ind. vol.

Quite a number of the descendants have entered the service of the United States in the present war with Germany. We do not have their names or know what branch of the service they have entered.

A great variety of occupations are represented in the relationship but few have found prominence outside of their own community. The bulk of the relationship belong to the great middle class—the common people.

The following persons were appointed at the Reunion in 1911 to secure the information and make this book. Each person was to represent the descendants of one of the thirteen children of Henry and Susannah Paul:

Ida Paul, Herman Taylor, Alice Pugh, Clinton Paul, Della Miller, Levi Craig, Lawrence Shultz, Mary Fowerbaugh, Linnie Bess, Daniel W. Paul, Levi H. Paul, Laura Paul, and Daisy Bailey.

This committee organized by electing David M. Paul, Newcastle, Ind., president, and Herman Taylor, Huntington, Ind., secretary.

Owing to so many being careless and indifferent, the work has been slow and at times discouraging. Much of the incompleteness and mistakes is due to that fact.

Knowing that many of the facts of this little book will be of value to future generations, we do not feel that our work is in vain.

HERMAN TAYLOR, Sec. Com.

Huntington, Ind., November, 1917.

ODE TO THE PAULS

By ORA PAUL

If your name is Paul, and that is all,
  You're but a thing to scoff at.
Without good deeds, you're like the weeds
  That choke out all the profit.
If you but gain the thing that's vain,
  At foolishness keep stumbling,
You're sure to stray in another's way
  And be a block of stumbling.

If your name is Paul and you do all
  You can that's right and proper,
In fitting style do things worth while,
  For good you'll be a whopper.
Stick to the right both day and night
  The worthy cause carressing,
For every class do righteousness
  And you will be a blessing.
